

The backbone zip allows for me to join to get the vernacular names for each bird.

The wikipedia api pulls in bird content. Text content about the bird, images, and references for the articles

Cloudflare worker and also have a maintenance route to set when I want users to know im working on the site. Rules and limits, other security features. Also, an edge and browser cache.